

Kolme Sokea Hiiri

The Mime Camps, an a cappella group from Delirium, Delaware, was noted for injecting drama into its performances. Here, for example, the quintet sings “Three Blind Mice” (Kolme Sokea Hiiri) while animatedly pantomiming a day in the lives of a trio of visually impaired rodents before an audience of Mickey Mouse Club Mouskateers. Later, a visibly shaken Mouskateer Mustafa described the tailectomy in particular as “a teachable moment.”
